

The Second World War Historical Subcommittee of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences, the History Department of CEU and the Austrian Cultural Forum in Budapest are pleased to invite you to the second event of the lecture series “Two countries – one war”, a discussion on the recent book of

Stefano Bottoni: Long Awaited West. Eastern Europe since 1944

Venue: CEU, 1051 Budapest, Nádor utca 15. Quantum room 101

Date: June 12, 2018, 15.00–16.30

Program:

15.00–15.10: Andrea Pető (CEU, Professor in the Gender Studies Department, Chair of the Second World War Historical Subcommittee of HAS): introductory remarks

Chair: Balázs Trencsényi (CEU, Professor, Head of History Department)

15.10–15.40: Keynote speech, Philipp Ther (Professor of Central European History, Head of the University of Vienna's Institute for Eastern European History)

15.40–15.50: Answer, Stefano Bottoni (senior fellow, Research Center for the Humanities of the HAS, Secretary of the Second World War Historical Subcommittee of HAS)

15.50–16.30: Discussion

