

EASAC Joint Meeting of the Energy and Environment Steering Panels

24 April 2018

Venue: Palace of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Reading Room

Programme

10:00-10:30 Registration

10:30-10:40 Welcome and opening remarks by Professor László Lovász, President of MTA
(10 minutes)

10:40-10:50 Introduction to EASAC by Dr Christiane Diehl, Executive Director of EASAC

10:50-11:00 Co-operation with EASAC in Hungary, contribution of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences by Professor Tivadar Tulassay, Member of MTA's Presidium, Member of the EASAC Council (10 minutes)

11:00-11:20 Presentation of the report on "Valuing Dedicated Storage in Electricity Grids" by Dr William Gillett, EASAC Energy Programme Director, Chairperson of the working group in charge of the report (20 minutes)

11:20-11:35 Presentation from a Hungarian perspective by Dr Bálint Hartmann, Centre for Energy Research, Hungarian Academy of Sciences (15 minutes)

11:35-11:55 Discussion on the report and on the Hungarian presentation - Q & A (20 minutes)

11:55-12:10 Coffee break (15 minutes)

12:10-12:30 Presentation of the report on "Multi-functionality and Sustainability in the European Union's Forests" by Professor Michael Norton, EASAC Environment Programme Director (20 minutes)

12:30-12:45 Presentation from a Hungarian perspective by Dr Réka Aszalós (Institute of Ecology and Botany, Hungarian Academy of Sciences), member of the working group preparing the report on "Multi-functionality and Sustainability in the European Union's Forests" (15 minutes)

12:45-13:05 Discussion on the report and on the Hungarian presentation - Q & A (20 minutes)

13:05-13:15 Wrap-up, summary of the discussions by Professor András Báldi and Professor Ákos Horváth (5-5 minutes)

13:15-14:15 Joint lunch hosted by Professor László Lovász, President of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences (venue: Palace of the Academy, Academy Club Restaurant)