

Czech Academy of Sciences for the young generations

Ondřej Beránek
05/2022

Key activities

- › Aimed at junior scholars:
Direct instruments
to support young scholars at the CAS
- › Aimed at students:
Cooperation with universities
- › Aimed at the general public:
Examples of additional activities

CAS instruments

Main instruments:

- › Postdocs
(ca. 25K EUR/year, 2021: 58 out of 168 proposals awarded)
- › Lumina Quaeruntur Fellowship
(ca. 6 awards/year, up to 160K EUR each/year)
- › Otto Wichterle Award

Other instruments:

- › Josef Dobrovský Fellowship
- › Mobility Projects

Cooperation with universities

- › Involvement at all levels (Bc., MA, Ph.D.)
- › Ph.D.: joint accreditations with Czech universities (supervisors from the CAS)
- › Career days for university students
- › Specialized course: “Fundamentals of the scientific work”

General activities

- › Open science
 - › Summer science camps for elementary and high school teachers
 - › Internships for high school students
- › Science Fair
(3 days, 100+ exhibitors, 8,200 m² exhibition area, 30K+ visitors)
- › Czech Academy of Sciences Week
(50K+ visitors)

General activities

- › AΩ / Science for Everyone
- › NONdistorted Science (7,5M+ viewers)
- › Social Networks – Facebook (53K+ followers), Instagram (18K+ followers)

Thank you for your attention

Mgr. Ondřej Beránek, Ph.D. | beranek@kav.cas.cz | +420 221 403 551

<https://twitter.com/czechacademy>

www.avcr.cz/en/