

Support for and involvement of young researchers in the activities of Slovak Academy of Sciences

Education – doctoral school

Grants for PhD students

Competitions

Bridging allowance

Stefan Schwarz fellowship

GEP

Education – doctoral school

We are upgrading individual training programs into one doctoral school offering comprehensive training during doctoral studies communication/presentation skills intercultural communication and leadership research ethics and academic integrity good publishing practice grant writing entrepreneurship training

Partly in cooperation with CARLiS partners

Grants for PhD students

First and second-year students may apply

50% success rate

Funding up to 2000 € for one year

Primary goal:

training in grant writing and grant administration

Competitions

For PhD students

For young scientists (under 35)

Based on presentation of published work(s) – up to 5 papers

Financial award for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place

Bridging allowance

For 30 young scientists annually (<1 year after thesis defense)

For 2 years

Based on evaluation of the best first-author paper published during PhD studies

150 € salary supplement

Štefan Schwarz fellowship

For 20 young scientists annually <4 years after thesis defense, not including maternity/parental leave

For two years with possible extension for another year

Based on proposals of scientific projects

Substantial international experience required

300 € salary supplement

Gender Equality Plan

Support for maternity/parental leave

Improving the work-life balance

Improving gender balance at all levels of research, management, and leadership positions

